

Project introduction of UNESCO-ICHEI Higher Education Digitalisation Pioneer Case Award

Full name of the applied project
Apply for award category	This year the Pioneer Award theme is " The Reform and Innovation of Blended Learning in Higher Education " (Please select from the following sub-theme that's relevant to your proposal. Digital Classroom Teaching, Digital Practical Teaching, Digital Teaching Resource Building and Application, Outstanding Student Digital Learning Support, Digital Teaching Innovation, Digital Governance and Services, Digital Strategy and Transformation Policy, Promoting Regional Educational Equity)
1. Background introduction
Briefly introduce the background of the project implementation, including national and regional culture, policy support, technical level, etc. (maximum 300 words).
2. Project objectives
Explain the reasons, design, impact, etc., of the project implementation, etc. (maximum 500 words)
3. Teaching design
Applicants need to state in the application the learning objectives and requirements of this blended teaching course, ensuring that the objectives are clear, measurable, and have a clear connection with the course background and learning activities (maximum 500 words)
4. Teaching process
Applicants need to reflect in the application the implementation of blended teaching, including performance of digital media, digital technology applied to classroom teaching, etc. (maximum 500 words).
5. Learning outcomes
Applicants need to briefly describe in the application the clear evidence or works of learning outcomes obtained through digital education, include qualitative and quantitative data to prove the enhancement and support of the project to learning, and discuss whether they meet the expected teaching objectives and requirements. (maximum 500 words)
6. Innovative design
Applicants need to describe teaching design or learning activity design, innovations in the development or application of digital technology in the application, and what problems has been solved. (maximum 500 words)
7. Project progress

Applicants need to describe the current progress and overall planning of the project, which may include the use of funds, timeline for project implementation, etc. (maximum 500 words).

8. Project Impact and Sustainability

Applicants need to describe in the application the uniqueness of digital technology or media design and the subject or regional context, to highlight the highlights of the project, and to describe what kinds of ongoing impact the project has had on whom, etc. (maximum 500 words)

9. Applicant Involvement Level

Summarize the core role played by the applicant in the project (such as leadership, coordination, top-level design, implementation, etc.). (maximum 500 words)

10. Personal Statement

- I solemnly promise to fill in and submit the relevant application materials truthfully, and ensure that all the information and materials provided are true and valid.
- I agree to authorize UNESCO-ICHEI to use the submitted information and materials gratuitously, and acknowledge that UNESCO-ICHEI may communicate with me further regarding the publication and distribution of such referenced materials.
- If there is any improper behavior such as violating the principle of academic integrity, violating the rules related to the UNESCO-ICHEI Higher Education Digitalisation Pioneer Case Award, I will bear the corresponding responsibilities and consequences.

My signature:

Date:

Requirements for filling out the form:

Please label the application materials supporting the project description as 1_Material Name according to the order of filling, and upload them as attachments to the Pioneer Case Award review area.